BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS

Jerry Manning

We began our study this past Wednesday night on the topic of fellowship and as we read the scriptures it became quite apparent how important our relationships are as Christians and how God ties these relationships to the very survival of our souls. This is something that we must get right and is the basis of our Lord Jesus' entire doctrine. He told us in (Matt.22:36-40) that on two commandments hang all the law and the prophets: love God and love your neighbor. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another (John 13:35). And as we read Paul's epistles to his brethren in the First Century they are filled with vernacular of a bond stronger even than family, referring to them as: fellow citizens, fellow heirs, fellow soldiers, fellow servants and fellow workers (Eph.2:19; 3:6; Phil.2:25; Col. 1:7; 4:11). Paul made it clear throughout his letters that he lived and died for his Christian brothers and sisters, (2 Cor.12:15) And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

There are those seasoned in the fruit of the Spirit who have become gentle, kind, patient, loving and full of goodness and make it very easy to befriend. The challenge however is with those lacking in what we call the "social graces." It is easy to love the loveable but Jesus said, they that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick (Matt.9:12).

It is the unlovable that we extend God's mercy, love and patience to. (Matt.5:44) Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you. God wants us to build relationships with those who don't even know they need a friend. It's like taming a wolf or a fierce lion. Begin by accepting the challenge and then through the power of God's love, the wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock (Isa. 65:25). Being a Christian means that we rise to a higher calling in life, step out of our comfort zones and do things that seem quite the opposite of what feels natural. Turn the other cheek? Feed your enemy? Overcome evil with good? Forgive seventy times seven? Avenge not yourselves? Rejoice in tribulations? It's all about making friends, establishing trust and bringing the wolf close to the fire.

Satan roams this earth spreading evil, malice and wrath among the nations. Our local news stations love reporting the results of his worldwide campaign. But every day there are celebrations in heaven for the thousands that are being brought out of darkness and translated into God's glorious kingdom, the church of Christ. Let us rise up and be friends.
