SPIRITUAL MATURITY

Charlie T. Garner, Sevierville Church of Christ

Spiritual Maturity is not to be assumed merely because one has been a Christian for many years. Hebrews 5:12-14 affirms that fact. Spiritual maturity is not proven by large amounts of scripture committed to memory, for there is a vast difference between knowing truths and making application of those truths in daily living. Then, too, spiritual maturity cannot be determined by how large of a following one builds for himself.

Spiritual maturity becomes increasingly evident in our lives as we reduce the disparity between what we say we love and what we show we love; between what we say and what we do; between what we claim and how we act.

Swift to hear, slow to speak. James 1:19

Pray(ing) without ceasing. 1 Thessalonians 5:17

Increasing the fruits of righteousness in our daily life. II Cori. 9:10

Ready unto every good work. Titus 3:1

Importing to those in need. Luke 3:11

Trusting in the Lord completely. Proverbs 3:5

Uncorrupted in doctrine. Titus 2:6-8

Abounding in love toward another. 1 Thessalonians 3:12

Laying up treasure in heaven, not on the earth. Matthew 5:19-23

Magnifying Christ in one's manner of life. Philippians 1:20

Abstaining from every appearance of evil. 1 Thessalonians 5:22

Telling others the truths of God's Word in love. Ephesians 4:15

United as one with the brethren. Psalms 133:1

Redeeming time. Ephesians 5:16

Inclined toward good counsel. Proverbs 4:20-22

Trying the spirits to determine if they be of God. 1 John 4:1

Yielding to God. Roman 6:13

Spiritual maturity does not just happen – it is diligently worked toward and developed as we make the principles of Christian character more practical in our lives. Very simply put, spiritual maturity is – being stronger in the faith each day of our life than we were the day before; confidently drawing on our faith for the solutions of life's problems; happily accepting the Lordship of Christ over my life; exhibiting genuine concern for the physical and spiritual welfare of others; understanding this life as nothing more than a pilgrimage to a far greater, more meaningful one of an eternal nature; accepting the major thrust of life as being selflessness, not selfishness; when our first love is the cause of Christ.

All Ladies and Girls are Invited to attend.

"GIFTS" is a Leaderette project that means "Girls in Fellowship and Team Study". This is a great guide for personal Bible study for all teen girls. Hannah Colley wrote this book and will be our guest speaker along with ours and surrounding congregations teen girls. We are asking all parents who have girls (any age) to help promote this event by encouraging your girl to participate or by you attending. We also need the congregations help with food, donations & etc. See Jean Johnson or Sally Wallace with any questions.
