THINK FAMILY

You owe me!!! I owe you what? You just owe me. The argument went on and on between mother and daughter concerning the indebtedness that the mother had incurred to the daughter. It came to a screeching halt when the mother said at the top of her lungs, "LISTEN TO ME!!!". " There are two categories in which all of life can be put into. One, the things you get as an inalienable right simply because you exist and the second category consist of privileges. In the first category is AIR to breathe and God provides it as He sees fit, and the second category is EVERYTHING ELSE and I provide it as I see fit." Yes, every child needs to hear this and the shouting matches will come to end concerning our debt to them because they are our children. But in reality we do owe our children simply because they are our children. There are some things we as parents often forget we owe our children in our battles to "win" for the sake of "winning". Let's take a look at what the Bible says we owe our children.

- RESPECT, because our children are a gift from God they deserve our respect. Psalm 127:3
- PROTECTION, as a shepherd protects his sheep from danger, so should parents protect their children. Psalm 23:4
- GUIDANCE, as humans we all need guidance, left to ourselves we will self-destruct, so we must show our children the way. Psalm 119:97-104
- REFUGE, there are days we all feel we need a place to run to, as parents our children must feel safe to run to us for refuge. Psalm 9:7-10
- LOVE, this encompasses so much but is a basic debt we owe everyone but especially our children. Psalm 26: 3
- GOSPEL, if ever we owed any one anything it would be the gospel, which results in the salvation of the soul, we most definitely owe this to our children. Psalm 35:9

If only we would pay the actual debts we owe our children the pay-off would be out of this world. God entrusted us with His heritage, our children, let us be conscience of what we invest in them. Try paying the debts listed above and see if your home becomes an inviting place, I believe you will be pleased.

GOD GIVE US CHRISTIAN HOMES
