Graham's Goodbye

Before saying goodbye, Jeff wanted to tell me something. "Graham, I want you to write a 'Bon Voyage' for the bulletin before you leave today." So while the Scotsman has gone home as you read this, he's not really that far away. The thing with a "Bon Voyage" is that it is something wished for the traveller so I thought about it and began to realise, it applies to you too. I got on a plane and went home leaving you here in Fayetteville, but in truth, we are all on a "Good Journey". Whether we are in Scotland or America, Pohnpei or Jamaica we walk with the Lord in His Kingdom until we finally all get home. That will be a wonderful day!

I have had a wonderful trip to America. I travelled many miles to be here, many miles while here and have met old friends and made many new ones. Wherever I have gone I have been reminded of the Lord's care for me and His constant devotion to His elect. That lesson was best taught to me here in Fayetteville. Gerry and Cathy and Jeff and Tammy welcomed me into their homes as family and gave me a place to sleep at night. So many more welcomed me into their homes and hearts and we ate and visited and encouraged one another. There are precious memories in my heart and I can't even begin to express how much it has meant to me..

It will be good to be home and to see my beloved Elizabeth and our four children again but knowing that I won't see many of you again for two years will temper that a little. I have loved the church in Fayetteville for more than ten years now and I rejoice that that love is growing and strengthening above measure. My work will have a bounce in it because of you and I look forward to being with you again. I know Elizabeth will have a great time when she comes here in March. I know you will love her as you have loved me.

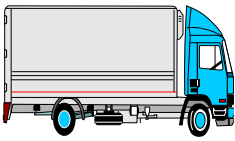

We are all going home and we are all going in the same direction. Let our walk with Jesus be a "Bon Voyage", our good journey to that home not made with hands and that is reached only by faith and the grace of our God.

God bless you. Keep the faith. Thank you for your love for me and my family..

Your servant, Graham
