Many have asked about the parable of the hot dog since I mentioned it in my lesson. I feel it has meaning for those who seek understanding. Please know that I did not write this, but stumbled upon it many years ago. So here it is, with all its grammatical errors:

The Parable of the Hot Dog

There was a man who lived by the side of the road and he sold hot dogs. He was hard of hearing so that he had no radio. He had trouble with his eyes so he read no newspapers, nor did he watch television. But he sold good hot dogs. He put signs on the highway telling how good they were. He stood on the side of the road and cried "buy a hot dog, mister?" And people bought. He increased his meat and bun orders. He bought a bigger stove to take care of his trade. He finally got his son home from college to help him.

But then something happened...

His son said, "Father, haven't you been reading the newspapers? There's a big depression on. The European situation is terrible, the domestic situation is worse. Everything is going to pot."

Thereupon the father thought. "Well, my son's been to college, he reads the newspapers, he listens to the radio, he watches television and he ought to know." So the father cut down on his meat and bun orders, took down his advertising signs, and no longer bothered to stand out on the highway to sell his hot dogs.

And his hot dog sales fell almost overnight. "You're right, son," the father said to the boy. "We certainly are in the middle of a great depression."

Lesson: don't listen to the nay sayers. Be positive. Do what you know is right. Treat others the way you want to be treated, God will bless you.

Order of Worship for SEPTEMBER

To attain a higher level of dignity, we would like to suggest that our men wear coats and ties while serving the congregation. Please consider this suggestion seriously. Your understanding and cooperation will be appreciated.
