Me, A Servant

For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many. Mark 10:4

The creator of the universe did not come to His world to be served by the people He created, but to serve them. He came to meet needs of the people He had made, not to take from them. The disciple is to be like the Master; therefore we too are to serve. Paul wrote that we should be conformed to the image of God's Son. (Romans 8:29) The image of Jesus is one of great strength, using that power to meet the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of those around Him.

You and I will never have the abilities and talents of Jesus but we do have much the same opportunities. There are more people hurting today than there was two thousand years ago. There is as much hunger if not more than two thousand years ago. There is as much sickness, as much hatred, as much anger, as much loneliness and heartache.

The same problem exists today that keeps people out of service that existed two thousand years ago, pride. It takes a humble heart to be a servant. We have a problem with humility. It just seems unnatural, demeaning, to serve others. While we would be too embarrassed to actually say it, our thoughts are probably like this. "I don't want to put up with those little kids, someone else can teach the class." "I do not want to give up a night of T.V. per week, someone else can make those visits." "I feel uncomfortable around sick people and besides that, I catch cold easily, someone else can take them a meal." "I will give some money, but don't ask me to do anything."

"You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them. It is not so among you, but whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you shall be your slave; just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many" Matthew 20:25-28.

A fundamental quality of discipleship is servant-hood. What, me a servant? Yes, if you are conformed to the image of Jesus, if you are a Christian.

Gerald Elliott, Church of Christ in Winnsboro, TX

SPIRITUAL QUESTIONS:

For All The People Who Believe

"We Cannot Understand The WORD (Bible) The Same Way."

1. Why then, and for what purpose, did God give all people the same Word? (2 Tim 3:16-17).
2. Why does God believe we can all understand the same way? (Col 1:5-6,23; 2 Tim 2:15).
3. Wouldn't God be unjust to judge us by a Word we couldn't rightly understand? (John 12:48).
4. Is not failure of understanding the same way man's default and not his inability? (Eph 3:3-4)
